ROMEO CANNADY

TITLE: "Another Sad Love Song"

SOUND: Johnny and Donna by Mali Music

PERFORMERS: Suzette Gilreath,
Brian Fotso

Romero Cannady is a 21-year-old junior at the University of Minnesota. He has trained in many forms of dance but he especially enjoys praise dance. At the age of six, Romero started dancing under his mother Tanya L Eubanks. And at that time is when he fell in love with dance. He plans to continue his education at the University of Minnesota, while double majoring in youth studies and dance. He has enjoyed assisting and is now teaching classes in hip-hop and contemporary at the Boys and Girls Club.

ELISE BONNES

TITLE: "Since I'm Already Here, I Might as well Heal."

Elise Bonnes is a printmaker who makes linocuts exploring the process of overcoming sexual trauma, mental health and wellness, and finding joy and fulfillment amidst struggles. These explorations are specific to her own experiences and heavily focus on portraiture and the body. She is currently pursuing her Bachelors of Fine Arts from the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities. Her art was featured on the 2018 shirts for the U of MN's Dungeons and Dragons club and on the pint glasses from Gleeman and the Geek's Tuesday Taproom Tour from 2017-2018.

Elise Bonnes was born in Minneapolis, MN. She tried to move to Indianapolis in Indiana in 2015 to study Operatic Performance, but when she decided to instead pursue visual art she returned to the larger printmaking studios in the Twin Cities. She enjoys playing Dungeons and Dragons, and no, she will not DM for you and your friends. Her favorite color is yellow. She's currently working to add to her collection of tattoos (don't tell her grandparents).

La Viva is a co-ed urban dance team created by an all Asian-American influence. Located in the Twin Cities, they started in the fall of 2017 and are a leisure dance team that performs at local community events. Some of their big yearly performance goals include Pan Asian Arts Festival and Generation Z. Project. Currently, with eight active members, they strive to always find room for improvement and new opportunities. La Viva is a creative outlet for the members to utilize as a platform for inspiration. Their purpose is to impact and influence the urban dance community through media, dance workshops, and performances.

MADELYN KAPHEIM

FIRST PIECE: "Growing portrait"
hand-built glazed ceramic sculpture

SECOND PIECE: "Growing cycle"
hand-built glazed ceramic sculpture

My name is Madelyn Kapheim and I am a sophomore at the University of Minnesota studying art and applying for the BFA program at the U this semester. I spend most of my time in the ceramics studios handbuilding and creating pottery. I find a lot of my inspiration from natural forms such as flowers, plants, trees, animals and humans.

I am attracted to the idea of growth, whether that be in plants and animals or my personal growth as an individual I use art as an outlet to express my growth and the way I experience growth around me. Art has been a huge part of my life for as long as I can remember. From a young age I knew that art was the career path for me, after undergraduate schooling I plan to go onto grad school and eventually be a college professor of art.

LILY CONFORTI

TITLE: Punky Bees

CHOREOGRAPHY: Lily Conforti

SOUND: Balcony Rain by Steezy Prime, Park by

Audio Dope, Harmony Rain by Audio Dope

PERFORMERS: Arcadia Langmead, Tessa Russ,

Maeve Seymour, Lily Conforti

Lily Conforti is an artist from the twin cities, currently pursuing degrees in Dance and Physiology at the University of Minnesota.

Lily has 13 years of dance training from Escalate Dance Studio where she competed both locally and nationally. Since then, Lily has performed in and choreographed works around the twin cities, as well as, shows within the university dance program.

As an artist, Lily is interested in articulated movement. Seeing and feeling the groove is an important aspect of her work. Her interest in science informs her movement and allows for the portrayal different scientific concepts in her work. Lily hopes to cultivate an art experience that is new to the audience and to continue creating knowledgeable work that provokes thoughtful conversation.

Ananya Dance Theatre presents

SHAWNGRAM SUMMER INTENSIVE

JUN
10-28

APPLICATION

<http://bit.ly/ADT2019>

Scholarships available,
based on need.

DATES

Monday–Friday

June 10–28, 2019

11am–2pm

There will be an informal showing on Friday, June 25 at 1pm.

A 3-week summer training program in St. Paul, Minnesota (3 hours/day, 5 days/week) will introduce Yorchhā™, our unique movement aesthetic, in technique classes that build in complexity over 3 weeks and our particular choreographic process of creating dance from the stories of our lives.

This program is part of our ongoing commitment to train next generation artists of color for professional engagement in dance.

This summer dance intensive embodies and enunciates our core principles: that moving and negotiating space with strangers, and connecting ourselves to our bodies and life stories through metaphoric movement, allows us to access experiences and power that have yet to be articulated.

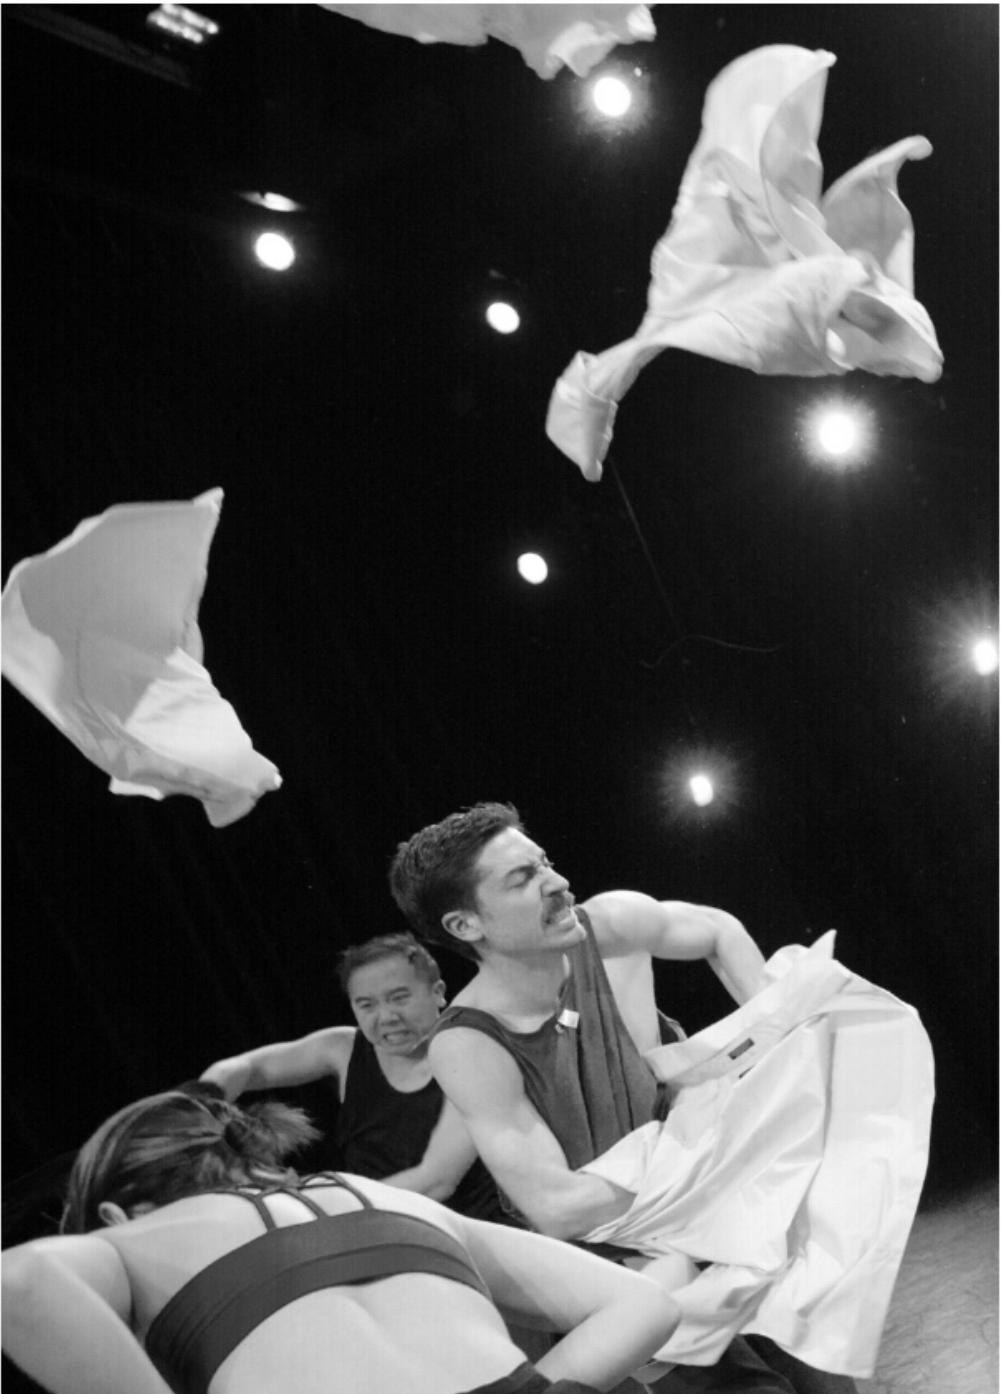

Yorchha™ brings together movement principles from Odissi, the classical Indian dance technique, Chhau, the East Indian martial art, and Vinyasa yoga.
